BIBLE STORY: JOHN 1:35-50

In this passage we see Jesus calling His disciples to follow Him. Even before He came to earth, He knew who His disciples would be. He knows each one of us in the same way. Because God is our Creator, He knows the number of days we will live and He has a perfect plan for those days. Just as Jesus knew His disciples even before they left everything to follow Him, we are known by God.

STORY: CREATION

God created everything. Everything we see, hear, feel, taste, and that exists was created by Him. Not only did He create everything, but He created everything perfectly, including humanity. He created mankind in His very image and likeness to reflect His worth. All of creation was made just like He wanted and designed it to be. To His delight, God looked at everything He made and declared that it was good. All creation exists for God, is good, and was created to bring Him glory.

Jesus Calls The Disciples

Opening Illustration:

On heavy cardstock paper, write down different things that God created. Make sure to include the following: sea creatures, birds, animals, angels, and man. You can have as many pieces of cardstock as you like. Place the pieces of cardstock on the floor and then play a game of beanbag toss with the children. When a child hits one of the pieces of paper, they get to turn it over and tell the class something that God created. When every child has had a turn, lead them in a discussion about God as the Creator of all things. Make sure to include that God created the sea creatures, birds, animals, angels, and man and He rules over everything.

God is the Creator of all people.

- We are all created by God.
- Even before we are in our mother's womb, God knows us.

- God knows and understands each person.

Why does God know all that He does about every person? (He is all-knowing and He is the Creator of every person.)

1. 1 Corinthians 2:11a: God knows the thoughts and heart of every person. The Holy Spirit is God and the Holy Spirit lives inside of God's people.

STORY: CREATION
GOD KNOWS MEBIG IDEA: GOD KNOWS WHO WE WILL BE.²*Before we are born God knows who we will become.

- God is personally involved in our lives.
- He is involved in the forming of our lives.
- He is involved in the daily happenings of our lives.
- God knew all twelve of the disciples before they were even born.
- He knew they would answer the call to follow Jesus.
- God knows each of us the same way.

Ask the children to share what they hope to do or be when they grow up. Share with the children some of the things you wanted to be or do when you were a child. Talk with them about how God always knows exactly what we will be. He knows us and He knows the future.

God knows our future, our present, and our past.

- God knows everything about us.
- He knew Nathanael's past when He revealed he was sitting under a fig tree.

STORY: CREATION
GOD KNOWS MEBIG IDEA: GOD KNOWS US BETTER THAN WE KNOW OURSELVES.³*Because God is our Creator, He knows us the best.

- God knows our future and our past, so He knows us better than we know ourselves.
- God knows the decisions we will make in the future.
- He knows all the things we've done in the past.
- Jesus knew His disciples better than they knew themselves.
- He knew what they would be doing and where they would be on the day He called them to follow Him.

Pair the children up with someone and then give them several minutes to find out as much information about each other as they can. Ask a few of the pairs to share their information when the time is up. Talk with them about how God knows us even better than we know ourselves.

3. Matthew 12:25: Jesus knew the thoughts of the man, of every man He encountered. He understood their motives even more than they understood themselves.

Attach a small heart-shaped piece of paper onto the end of an empty paper towel roll. Tell the children that the paper towel roll represents what God can see about us. Let each child take a turn looking in the paper towel roll to see the heart at the end. Talk with them about how God can see our hearts and He knows everything about us.

Our hearts reveal who we are.

- Inside our hearts are our motives and desires.
- Our motives and desires reveal who we are and how we think and feel.
- God knows our hearts and He understands our motives and desires.
- He knows us so well because He sees into our hearts.
- He sees and works in places that only He can reach.

- Jesus knew them before they were even born and He knew they would follow Him.
- Jesus understood them because He could see their hearts.

HOOKS

God Knows Our Hearts

Give each child a heart-shaped paper and some markers. Ask the children to write down a couple of things they love and a couple of things they fear. Have the children share the words they wrote on their hearts with the class. Lead them in a discussion about how God knows our hearts, even the things we don't tell other people.

- God knows everything about us.
- He knows what is in our hearts even when no one else knows.
- God can see our hearts and He knows why we do the things we do.

God Knows What We Will Be

Bring in several different sports balls to class, such as a basketball, volleyball, soccer ball, and tennis ball. Choose several children to be your volunteers and take them outside of the classroom. Give each child a different ball and have them wait outside the room until you call them in. Once you are back inside the classroom, ask the rest of the class to guess what the child is going to do in the future by the ball he or she is holding. Ask each child outside of the classroom to come inside one at a time and give the class a chance to guess. Once every child has returned, lead the class in a discussion about how God knows what we will become because He knows the future.

- How did we know what game each classmate was going to play? (We knew by the type of ball he or she was holding.)
- God knows what we are going to be in the future because He knows the future.
- God knows everything.
