

BIG TRUTH: GOD IS REDEEMER

Psalm 130:7-8; Romans 3:21-26; Colossians 1:13-14; Titus 2:11-14; Hebrews 9:11-14; 1 Peter 1:18-22; Revelation 5:8-10

BIBLE VERSE: EPHESIANS 1:7

“In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of His grace.”

BIG IDEAS

- We cannot redeem ourselves.
- God sent His Son to redeem us from our sin.
- Our redemption is purchased by the blood of Jesus.
- Redemption is final and forever.

BIBLE STORY: RUTH 1-4

When Naomi and Ruth returned to Bethlehem, they were two women without husbands or family. They were in need of protection and help. Boaz, one of Naomi’s relatives, chose to bring them into his family. When he brought them into his family, he provided protection and help. God is the Redeemer of every person. He sent His Son to pay our sin debt so that we might become part of His family.

STORY: REDEMPTION

Thankfully, God does not just leave us in the broken world, but is repairing the brokenness through His Son. From the very beginning of time, God promised He would fix creation, and He kept His promise by sending Jesus to rescue us from our sin. Jesus came to live on the earth and willingly died on the cross so that sin’s power over creation would be broken forever.

BIG AIMSEvery child should know that:

- By grace alone, through faith alone, in Christ alone, we can be reconciled to God.

Every child should feel:

- Thankful that God would send His Son so that we could be reconciled to Him

Every child should:

- Pursue reconciliation in their relationships with friends and family because God has made a way for them to be reconciled back to Him

Every child should want:

- To honor God and live in restored relationship with Him

OUR KINSMAN REDEEMER

Spend some time looking through pictures of your family. Talk with your child about how each person belongs to your family and how they are related. Tell your child that Jesus became a man to be our kinsman and He died on the cross to be our Redeemer.

DISCOVER IT: (Use the passage to illustrate the Big Truth.)

Ruth 1-4.

THINK ABOUT IT: (Use the commentary to reinforce the Big Truth.)

Naomi and Ruth arrived in Bethlehem from Moab with nothing. They were both widows and had no one to care for them or protect them. Naomi sent Ruth to gather wheat from the fields of a man named Boaz. Boaz was a good man who was distantly related to Naomi. Boaz liked Ruth and told his servants to leave extra wheat for her. When Ruth returned home to Naomi and shared with her that Boaz had shown her special favor, Naomi knew that there was hope for them. Because Boaz was related to Naomi, he could help them become a part of a family again. Boaz could serve as their kinsman redeemer, or the relative who took them in and cared for them. In order for Boaz to be their kinsman redeemer, he would have to choose to make Ruth his wife. Naomi sent Ruth to Boaz one evening to ask him to be their kinsman redeemer. Boaz made sure that no other relative was before him and then he agreed to marry Ruth. Boaz redeemed Naomi and Ruth. He made them a part of his family forever. Every person is like Ruth and Naomi. They are in need of redemption. God sent Jesus to redeem us by paying our sin debt for us. God is our Redeemer and His redemption is forever. We can never lose our redemption from God.

TALK ABOUT IT: (Use the questions to discuss the Big Truth)

- Could Ruth and Naomi help themselves? (No, they could not provide for themselves without help.)
- How did Boaz help Naomi and Ruth at first? (He told his servants to leave extra wheat for Ruth to collect.)
- How could Boaz help Naomi and Ruth forever? (He could redeem them and make them part of his family.)
- How does God redeem us? (He sent Jesus to pay our sin debt.)
- Are we able to redeem ourselves? (No, we are all sinful and cannot redeem ourselves.)

KNOW

As a family, memorize Ephesians 1:7. Talk about how God redeems us by sending Jesus.

DO

Take your child to your local department store or mall. Ask your child to pick out one thing that he or she would like to give to a friend, neighbor or family member. Talk with your child about how the person receiving the gift has not earned it, but is receiving it for free. Jesus is our Redeemer. We do not earn it, but we receive it as a free gift.

FEEL

Help your child create a redemption chart. Include different chores or jobs that your child can redeem for something better. Throughout the week allow your child to use the redemption chart. At the end of the week, talk with your child about how Jesus is our Redeemer.

WANT

Spend time as a family thanking God for His redemption. Pray as a family thanking God for sending Jesus to pay our sin debt.