

GOSPEL PROCLAMATION BEGINS WITH BURDEN

BIG TRUTH: GOSPEL PROCLAMATION BEGINS WITH BURDEN

Romans 9:1-3; 10:1-2; Philippians 1:14

BIBLE VERSE: ACTS 17:16-17

“Now while Paul was waiting for them at Athens, his spirit was provoked within him as he saw that the city was full of idols. So he reasoned in the synagogue with the Jews and the devout persons, and in the marketplace every day with those who happened to be there.”

BIG IDEAS

- Burden begins by seeing people from an eternal perspective.
- Burden grows as we personally encounter the worship of false saviors around us.
- Burden compels us to meet people where they are with the good news of the Gospel.

BIBLE PASSAGE: ACTS 17

KNEEL - I AM AN AMBASSADOR

The Kneel Year is an exploration of what it means to worship God with our all (Luke 10:26-28). Worship is not something that is limited to a service once a week, but instead occurs every day, in all of life. We are unceasing worshipers. Worship never stops, it only changes directions. In order to worship God with all of our heart, soul, strength, and mind, we must embrace our identity as image bearers. It is out of that identity that we can begin to live for God’s glory in all of life (Colossians 3:17).

SERIES AIMS

Every student should know that...

- The gospel is the good news of Jesus Christ that brings salvation to sinners.
- Salvation comes by grace alone through faith alone in Christ alone.
- Jesus followers have been trusted with the gospel in order to share it with others.

Every student should feel...

- Humbled that as believers we have been entrusted with the glorious gospel of our Savior.
- Satisfied in Jesus as the only true Savior

Every student should strive to...

- Share the gospel each month with at least one person who does not know Jesus.
- Practice sharing the gospel using multiple different tools or methods.

Every student should want...

- To grow in awareness of the false saviors they are tempted to put their hope in.
- To have a softened heart and love for people who are lost
- To take advantage of opportunities to share the gospel with people in their lives who need Christ

FAMILY WORKOUT:

This week we will ponder how to discuss with our son or daughter what it means to have a burden for lost people. We will pray for them to have an increased burden for their lost friends and we will lead them to share the gospel with their friends.

GOSPEL PROCLAMATION BEGINS WITH BURDEN

Read and mediate on Acts 17 this week.

- As you read and meditate on these verses consider how to model for your son or daughter a burden for lost people. How can you share with them your own burden for your lost friends in a way that helps them develop a burden for their lost friends?
- Ponder how you can discuss with your son or daughter ways they can leverage their lives to share the gospel with their lost friends.

Spend time praying for your son or daughter this week.

- As you pray, ask the Holy Spirit to help you lead them to have a burden for lost people. Ask the Holy Spirit to help you model what it looks like to seek lost people.
- Pray with your student his week. As you pray together, ask the Holy Spirit to increase their burden for lost people.

Help your son or daughter memorize verses that teach us to have an eternal perspective.

- Discuss with your son or daughter some ways that he or she can engage lost people this week.
- Meet with your student to discuss a lost friend that he or she has and ways that they can share the gospel with them this week.
