ADVENT

Advent is a special celebration and contemplation of the coming of Jesus Christ that Christians participate in during the Christmas season. Advent literally means "arrival" or "coming". During Advent season God's people remember and rejoice in Jesus' first coming to save his people from their sins, while at the same time long with anticipation and expectation for his return. Advent centers on Jesus, the saving Son. He alone is the one true King!

Every child should know that:

- Jesus is the one and only King.
- Jesus came and is coming again.
- We exist for Jesus.

Every child should feel:

- The longing within their soul for the King.
- A dissatisfaction within their soul for things of the world.
- Awe and wonder that the King has come and is coming again.

Every child should strive to:

- Memorize the Bible Verse each week.
- Tell someone else about the King who came and is coming again.

Every child should want to:

- Trust the King in the everyday struggles of life.
- See and seek Jesus more than anything else this Christmas season.
- Tell others who are lost about the good news of the King.

FAMILY DEVOTION: AN EARNEST DEVOTION

God's people grow in their desire to see the King. They seek Him earnestly by devoting their lives to knowing Him and growing to be like Him. Anna set the example for earnest devotion in her humble service to the King.

- To be earnest is to truly desire something or someone and to be honest and humble in seeking the thing that is desired. Anna sought the King earnestly. She did so first by seeking God through her service to Him in the temple. She served Him daily, living her life in temple service rather than remarrying.

Opening Illustration:

Bring in several small objects and hide them in the room. Tell the children what you have hidden in the room and have them hunt for it. When they find it, remind them that God's people seek Him and desire to see Him come.

- Anna's worship sets an example for the way that we should worship.
- She sacrificed our own dreams and aspirations to serve God in the temple and to worship Him.
- Worshiping God means we will have to give up things to worship Him.

Give each child a blank piece of paper and crayons. Ask the children to fill their paper with names or pictures of things that they love and would find hard to give up, or sacrifice. Allow the children to share some of their things and then remind them that sacrificing means giving up things for something or someone else. When we worship sacrificially, we give up things in order to praise God with our lives and material things.
