Play this game a few times and then talk with your child about what they felt while they were looking for the alarm clocks. Discuss with them how we might feel waiting for the King to return. Discuss how God's people wait for His return expectantly, meaning they really do look for Him to return.

Luke 2:22-35.

THINK ABOUT IT: (Use the commentary to reinforce the Big Truth.)

Waiting for something or someone can be very difficult sometimes. We can grow impatient or even get distracted waiting for something. God's people knew that He had promised to send a Messiah. They waited many, many years for the Messiah to come. One person who waited for the Messiah was a man named Simeon. Simeon was faithful to God. He believed that God would do what He had promised. Simeon waited patiently for God to send the Messiah. He did not grow weary or get distracted. Simeon always expected the Messiah to come. He went to the temple expecting to see the Messiah and he did! He waited faithfully. He obeyed God's commands and lived righteously in the sight of God. He was faithful to God and in the end, Simeon got to see the Messiah. God's people today wait for the King to return. We wait patiently, trusting God's timing and now our own. We wait expectantly, knowing that God does what He says He's going to do and we wait faithfully. We can be faithful by obeying God's Word and living for our eternal home and not this temporal home.

TALK ABOUT IT: (Use the questions to discuss the Big Truth)

- How was Simeon faithful to God? (He lived a right life before God and obeyed God's commands.)
- How should God's people wait for the King today? (They should be like Simeon and wait patiently, expectantly, and faithfully.)

As a family, memorize Luke 2:25-26 by creating a puzzle from the verses. Write the verses on a piece of paper and then cut it into puzzle pieces. Take turns putting the puzzle together and saying the verses out loud.

As a family make your child's favorite dessert. As you are waiting to eat the dessert, talk with your child about how we might feel anxious or excited when we are waiting for something. Remind your child that God's people wait expectantly for His return because He is trustworthy and true.

On small pieces of paper, write down some of the things that the King will do when He returns. Hide these papers around your house and ask your child to hunt for them. When he or she finds one, read it out loud and talk about how God's people wait expectantly for His return.

As a family spend time praying together as a family for the King's return. Model asking Jesus to return to your child.
