Luke 2:1-21.

THINK ABOUT IT: (Use the commentary to reinforce the Big Truth.)

We find joy in a lot of different things in the world. Sometimes finding joy can be hard and other times it's easy. When Jesus was born in the town of Bethlehem, God's people found great joy in His birth. Joseph and Mary had traveled to the town of Bethlehem to pay taxes. While they were there, Jesus was born. Angels rejoiced and praised God that Jesus was born. They appeared to shepherds who were tending their flock of sheep nearby. They shared the good news of Jesus' birth with the shepherds and the shepherds left to go and see the Messiah who had been born in a stable. The shepherds rejoiced, too, that Jesus was born. God's people had waited a long time for the Messiah to come and now they were filled with joy. Jesus' birth shows us just how gracious God is to send someone to save us from our sin. Jesus came in humility because He became like us that He might save us. We rejoice now at the coming of the King because it means life for us and great hope.

TALK ABOUT IT: (Use the questions to discuss the Big Truth)

- Why did the shepherds rejoice at the coming of the King? (They rejoiced because the King coming meant salvation had come.)
- Why do we rejoice at the King's coming? (We rejoice because the King brings salvation and eternal life.)

As a family, memorize Luke 2:10-11 by creating a puzzle from the verses. Write the verses on paper and then cut the verses into puzzle pieces. Take turns putting the puzzle together and saying the verse out loud.

Spend time reading about modern day kings and queens with your child. Point out some of the differences between human kings and King Jesus. Help your child see the humility that characterizes Jesus. Remind them that Jesus' humility brings us salvation.

Play a game of musical chairs or ball as a family. The person holding the ball or without a chair when the music stops gets to name one reason he or she is glad that Jesus came in humility as the Savior of the world.

As a family spend time together singing Christmas songs that praise the King for coming.
