JESUS FOLLOWERS LONG FOR THE KING

LONGING FOR THE KING

Tell your preschooler you're going to bake his or her favorite treat. Allow them to help you make it and then watch the treat as it bakes in the oven. Ask your preschooler what he or she is feeling as they wait for the treat. Talk with them about your own feelings when you're waiting for something you really want. Remind them that Jesus followers long for the return of King Jesus.

DISCOVER IT: (Use the passage to illustrate the Big Truth.)

Read Isaiah 9:1-9.

THINK ABOUT IT: (Use the commentary to reinforce the Big Truth.)

In the beginning, God created a perfect world that was very good. He created people who were in His image and they were very good, too. Sadly, the people disobeyed God and sin entered the world. Along with sin came darkness because sin makes things dark and ugly. God spoke through His special messengers, or prophets like Isaiah to promise His people someone who would make the bad things good again. God promised to send His Son, Jesus to bring light to the dark world. Jesus did come when He was born as a baby in a manger and He made a way for people to be saved, or right with God. This means that when we believe in Jesus, we don't have to pay for our sin because Jesus did that for us on the cross. Not only is Jesus our Deliverer, but He's our true King, too. He is coming back one day and His people long for that day. Before Jesus was born, God's people longed for Him to come. Now, God's people long for Him to return because He will rule on earth forever as He rules now in Heaven. Longing for His return means hoping for it and asking God to send Him back. It means living obedient lives in hopes of Jesus returning soon.

TALK ABOUT IT: (Use the questions to discuss the Big Truth)

- Why did people long for Jesus' birth? (They wanted to be saved from their brokenness.)
- Why do we long for Jesus' return now? (We want Him to rule on earth as He does in heaven.)

Help your child memorize Isaiah 9:6 by creating a matching game from the verse. Write each word on a card twice and help your preschooler make matches.
