JESUS FOLLOWERS REJOICE IN THE KING

THE SAVIOR KING

Use a large piece of butcher paper or construction paper to help your preschooler create a cape. If you have leftover fabric or a small sheet, you can use that also. Use markers and other craft supplies to create a cape. Ask your preschooler to help you create a cape that describes the Savior King. Talk with him or her about the way that Jesus is our Savior and how He saves us from our sin. We rejoice because He came and offers us salvation.

Read Luke 2:1-21.

THINK ABOUT IT: (Use the commentary to reinforce the Big Truth.)

We find joy in a lot of different things in the world. Sometimes finding joy can be hard and other times it's easy. When Jesus was born in the town of Bethlehem, God's people found great joy in His birth. Joseph and Mary traveled to the town of Bethlehem to pay taxes. While they were there, Jesus was born. The angels rejoiced and praised God that Jesus was born. They appeared to shepherds who were tending their flock of sheep nearby. They shared the good news of Jesus' birth with the shepherds and the shepherds left to go and see the Messiah who had been born in a stable. The shepherds rejoiced, too, that Jesus was born. God's people had waited a long time for the Messiah to come and now they were filled with joy. Jesus' birth shows us just how gracious God is to send someone to save us from our sin. Jesus came in humility because He became like us that He might save us. We rejoice now at the coming of the King because it means life for us and great hope.

TALK ABOUT IT: (Use the questions to discuss the Big Truth)

- Why did the shepherds rejoice at the coming of the King? (They rejoiced because the King coming meant salvation had come.)
- Why do we rejoice at the King's coming? (We rejoice because the King brings salvation and eternal life.)

As a family, memorize Luke 2:10-11 by creating a puzzle from the verses. Write the verses on paper and then cut the verses into puzzle pieces. Take turns putting the puzzle together and saying the verse out loud.

Take a drive through your town with your preschooler. Point out the Fire Station, Police Station, and the hospital. Talk with your preschooler about how each place has people who can save lives. Talk about how we sometimes need their help to make us better, protect us, or keep us alive. Remind your preschooler that Jesus came as our Savior King and He gives us new life from our sin. His people are very happy because He gives us new life and saves us.

Read Luke 2:1-21 to your preschooler. Talk about some of the things that make you happy about Jesus' birth. Ask your preschooler to think of one or two things that make them happy when they think of Jesus' birth. Remind them that God's people were very happy that Jesus was born and we should be, too.

As a family spend time together singing Christmas songs that praise the King for coming.
