LOOKING FOR JESUS

Use an empty paper towel or toilet paper roll to create a telescope with your preschooler. Use construction paper or markers to decorate the telescope. Next, take turns with your preschooler looking for things in your “telescope”. Remind your preschooler that God’s people look for Jesus, the King.

Read Luke 2:22-38.

THINK ABOUT IT: (Use the commentary to reinforce the Big Truth.)

Many of God’s people anticipated and longed for the coming King, or Messiah. They all heard the prophecies and stories of God’s promise of salvation and they had waited a long time to see Him. Anna was an especially devoted follower of God. After her husband passed away, she devoted her life to serving God in the temple. She earnestly desired to see the coming King. She so longed for the King that she fasted and prayed every day for His coming. She humbled herself in order to serve God in the temple and she worshiped Him sacrificially, choosing not to remarry and have a family. She devoted her entire being to waiting for the King and serving God. She obeyed His Word and prayed for the King’s coming. God rewarded Anna’s devotion and earnest seeking by allowing her to see the King. When Joseph and Mary brought Jesus into the temple, Anna got to see firsthand God’s promise of salvation fulfilled through Jesus. God’s people everywhere should seek the King like Anna did. They should worship Him sacrificially and earnestly desire His coming.

TALK ABOUT IT: (Use the questions to discuss the Big Truth)

- How did Anna show she really wanted to see the King? (Anna devoted her life to temple service and fasted and prayed every day for the King’s coming.)
- How should God’s people seek the King today? (His people should seek Him through sacrificial worship and with earnest hearts.)

Help your child memorize Luke 2:36-37 by writing the verses on a piece of paper and spending time decorating the paper together. Say the verses out loud together several times.

As a family, make a list of people you are excited to see or that you really miss when they are away. Spend time making cards to send to those people. Talk with your preschooler about how God’s people really want to see the King and ask God to send Him.

Use toy binoculars to play a game of “I SPY” with your preschooler. Talk with them about how we should look for the King and desire to see Jesus come again.

Each morning this week pray with your preschooler. Pray that your preschooler would understand how God’s people long for and seek the King because they love Him and want to see Him.
